6: So What's Next?

Grupa 1

So when are you wrapping up over there?	I'm wrapping up in about two weeks — just tying up a few last things.
Are you heading back for good this time?	Yeah, this time I'm heading home for good — no more going abroad.
How do you feel about leaving?	Honestly, I've got mixed feelings about it — part of me is excited, part of me is nervous.
Have you figured out where you're going to live?	Not yet — not only am I on the fence about the city, I haven't figured out the budget either. I'll probably move back in with my parents to start.
Why move back in with your parents?	Kraków's expensive, so it's just until I get on my feet — it's not for good.
What's the plan for work?	What I can't figure out is whether to take the tutoring offer or go out on my own.
Wouldn't you rather play it safe?	Part of me would, but part of me really wants to go out on my own for once.
Have you talked it over with anyone?	Yeah, I talked it over with a few friends, and it actually helped.
Do you keep second-guessing yourself?	All the time. The more I think about it, the more I second-guess myself.
So what are you going to do about it?	I'm going to sleep on it and stop trying to figure everything out at once.
What's been the hardest part?	Turns out wrapping up is easy. Had I known how hard figuring out the next chapter would be, I would've started planning sooner.

So, what's next for you?	I'm heading back for good, moving in with my parents for now, and figuring out the rest one step at a time.
